Registering for courses online

Register for the courses of your choice using the online registration system:

The registration process is divided into two periods; namely the Course Registration Period, where you can add and drop courses, and the Course Deletable Period, where you can only drop courses. Details regarding the duration of each period will be announced separately by each faculty and may differ slightly. Additionally, there may be some courses that students are not able to register for online by themselves, so please pay close attention to the notices displayed on the Academic Affairs System.

1. Course Registration screen

- 1 From the top menu, select “Course grades” >> “Course registration”.

- 2 The Course registration screen will appear.

From the drop-down menu, select “Term”.

The screenshot shows the course registration interface. At the top left, there is a drop-down menu currently set to '3rd Term'. A red arrow points to this menu with the text 'From the drop-down menu, select “Term”.'. To the right of the menu is a 'Page for printing' button. Below the menu are search options: 'Enter a class schedule format', 'Enter a list format', 'Class schedule search', and 'Direct input of code'. A link 'Move to the intensive course' is visible. The main part of the screen is a grid for '2020 3rd Term' (highlighted by a red box). The grid has columns for days of the week (Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat) and rows for course numbers (1, 2). Each cell contains an 'Add' button. A red bracket on the right side of the grid is labeled 'Term currently being displayed'. Another red bracket on the right side is labeled 'Courses with a fixed day and time are displayed here'. Below the grid is a section for 'Intensive, etc.' courses, also with 'Add' buttons. A red bracket on the right side is labeled 'Courses without a fixed day and time are displayed here'. A link 'move to the normal tuition' is at the bottom left.

Select "list format" to display the course information.

2. How to register for courses

Choose one of three ways to register for your courses:

- | | |
|---|---|
| ① | Register using the Course schedule (Click the "add" button on the timetable display page) |
| ② | Register using the Course schedule search |
| ③ | Register by directly entering the course code (4 digits for the year + 6 digits for the lecture number) |

2-1. Register using the Course schedule

- 1 After confirming the day and time of the desired course, click the "add" button in the corresponding time period.

2 A new window will open displaying all of the courses within your curriculum offered at that time period.

- * Even if a certain course is not counted towards the graduation requirement, it will be displayed if the course is available for you to register.

Click the “add” button for the course you wish to register.

Okayama University Moodle system

Moodle is the name of the Learning Management System (LMS) at Okayama University. It supports your classes and other learning activities online. In the Moodle system, the contents of each course, such as lecture materials, references, quizzes, assignments and class evaluations, are managed.

* You must check with the instructor of each class and follow their instructions regarding Moodle, as it is used differently depending on the course.

1. How to access Moodle

1 Access Moodle through the following URL or QR code.

- Okayama University Moodle

<https://moodle.el.okayama-u.ac.jp/>

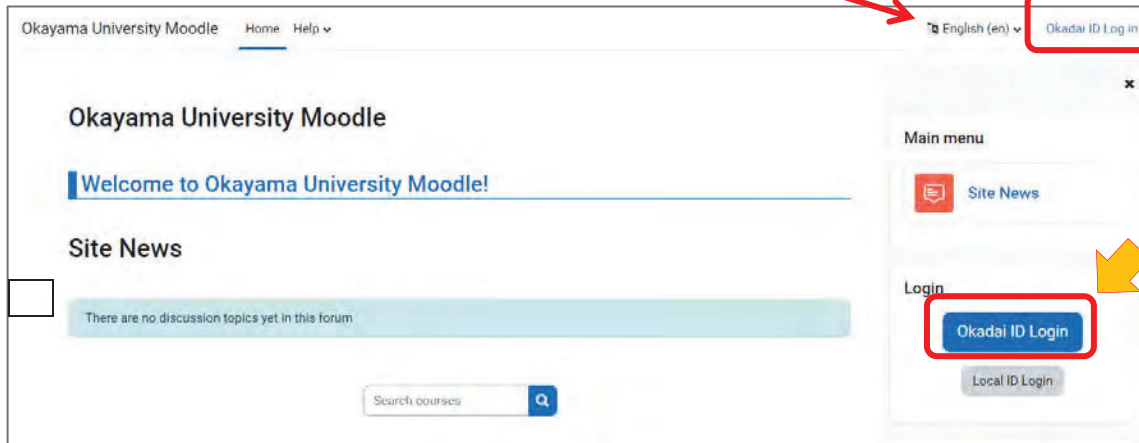

*You can view it from off campus by computer or mobile phone.

To access from the Okayama University official homepage, click 在学生・保護者の方 from the menu bar on the top → then click on “Moodle” on the banner.

2 The Moodle top page will be displayed. Click on either button below to log in.

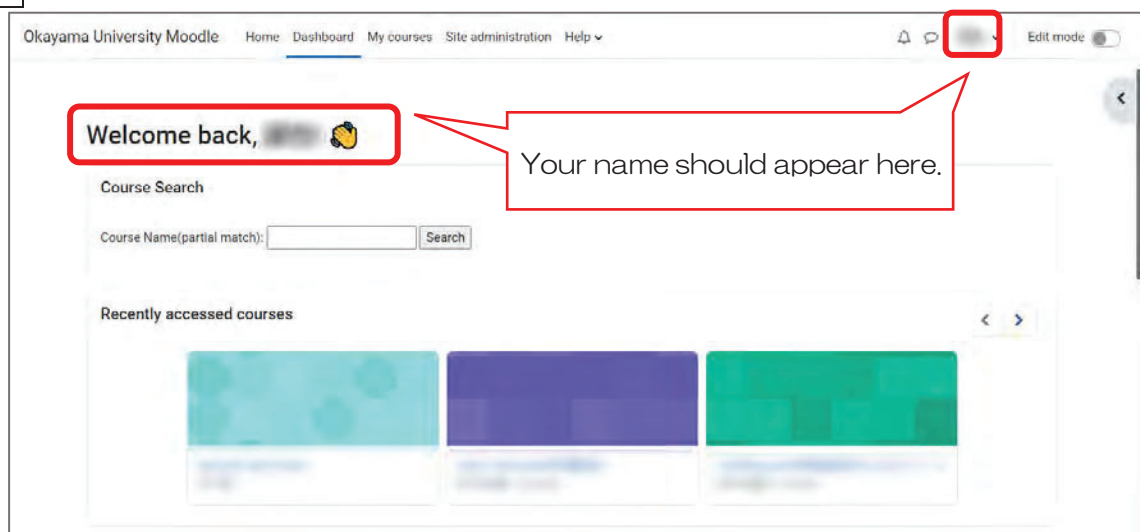

Choose the language for titles and other names. The course content will not be written in English unless the instructor writes in English.

3 Log in with your Okadai ID and password

4 The main “dashboard” page will be displayed after log in. Please make sure your name is on the page.

2. Course overview

All available classes will be in the “My courses”.

If you are not automatically registered for a course, follow the instructor’s instructions to register yourself.

- * Course registered by 23:00 will be confirmed in the morning of the next day on the Moodle page.

Types	Registration on Moodle system	Available period	Course name
Currently enrolled course	Automatically registered	During academic year after registration	{Academic year + Course number} & Course title
Course evaluation	Automatically registered	Designated period	(Course evaluation) {Academic year + Course number} & Course title
Others	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Registered by the instructor• Self-registered	Depends on setting	Various names

3. Course Evaluation

Okayama University conducts course evaluations in order to use students’ opinions to facilitate improvements. It is all conducted in the Moodle system anonymously. Your evaluation will not affect your grades.

- * The evaluation period and other details are posted on the homepage and bulletin boards.
- * You will see the link to the evaluation in the Moodle course during the specified period.

< Screen of the course during evaluation period >

Gmail

Okayama University provides information to students via bulletin boards and the Okayama University official homepage. In addition, important information is sent by email to students' Gmail addresses assigned by Okayama University (hereafter called Gmail), such as notices or advance notices of lecture cancellations due to official weather warnings, important academic matters, and other emergency announcements.

You may receive the following notices via Gmail.

☆ Examples of Gmail messages from the university

- (1) Announcements on course registration, academic performance, etc. from the academic affairs system
- (2) Notices (including advance notices) of lecture cancellations due to weather warnings
- (3) Notices about infectious diseases (e.g. influenza) and messages to prevent the spread of infection
- (4) Notices regarding restrictions of access to the campus due to entrance examinations, etc.
- (5) Notices about seminars and events
- (6) Other announcements about university-related matters

Please check your Gmail messages regularly by auto-forwarding the messages from your Gmail account to your mobile phone or frequently used email account.

Gmail messages will be summaries of important notices from the university. Please check details on the campus bulletin boards and Okayama University website.

Japanese Language Course Catalog for Term 1 in 2025

Q: I don't like to know more about the course.

A: All the information on the Japanese Language Course is available below. Please be sure to read it before taking the course.

→ https://www.jpcc.okayama-u.ac.jp/language/p_1

Q: What is the Okayama University Japanese Language Course like?

A: The Japanese Language course has seven levels from elementary to advanced. There are integrated classes and skills-based / topic-based classes in the Japanese Language Course. You can only take Japanese subjects at your level.

Integrated Classes

The integrated classes meet four days a week. Students learn the four skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) in an integrated manner through grammar and vocabulary. Students must attend Classes four times a week.

Skill-based and Topic-based Classes

The skill-based and topic-based classes meet 1-2 days a week. Students can select classes according to their interests.

- * You cannot start to take Integrated Classes from Term 1.
- * You can only take Japanese subjects at your level.

Things to know before attending Class

Q: How do I know my Japanese level?

A: Please take the Japanese placement test. The grade in the placement test determines your Japanese level. Please refer to Japanese Placement Test on the Okayama University Japanese Language Course website. If you have ever taken the Japanese language course, your level is decided by the pass or fail of the Integrated Classes (Japanese language 0-2) you took last time.

Q: Please tell me about the enrollment procedure.

A: The procedure depends on whether you have studied Japanese before and your status at Okayama University. Please refer to Okayama University Japanese Language Course website. If it is difficult to follow the procedures, please attend the Course Registration Consultation.
